Mary Ann Mekus - H.C. 104

Mary Ann,
I wish you the all the ~~best~~ luck in the world. I can't even spell it now!
PAT Corrine

Dear Mary Ann
It's been fun the year talking over our mutual wedding plans. Best of luck and all that.

P.S. hooray for June 83!
Penney

Mary Ann,
It's been nice knowing you this year. Lots of luck.
Linda Chapman

Mary Ann,
you are such a pretty girl and so very sweet. I enjoyed marking as an usher at the Senior Play.

Best of luck,

Betty Jo

foreword . . .

Smiling your hello to new students during Howdy Week . . . yelling yourself hoarse in that homecoming pep rally . . . working 'til dark on the spring production . . . campaigning eagerly in the student council election . . . starting your day with the Bible reading and that moment of silence for prayer . . . attending classes held before school by sympathetic teachers—these are only a part of the spirit manifested at Heights.

Friendliness, industry, enthusiasm, determination, tolerance, and understanding are lessons well learned as we play the Game of Life here on the Hill.

How we accept success and failure is of greater consequence than the actual outcome of our struggle to reach our goal. When what we learn here is forgotten, how we learned it will remain.

"When the one great Scorer comes
To mark against your name,
He writes not that you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

You, the student body, have created the memories recorded here. Your individual efforts culminate in a spirit of teamwork at Heights which makes that "feeling good and true."

So, "it's from our hearts to you"—

... dedication

Mary Ann - It has been so nice being in history with you the last two years.
I wish you much luck & happiness in your life to come. I shall miss your happy face at

You real nutcracker - it has been a ball - I have really enjoyed knowing you.
May your life
be full of joy & happiness.
Best wishes
Linda

Mary Ann,

Ask, finally to yours. It's been a long time since that first time we met in the 6th grade. I can hardly believe that we are finally graduating. I hope you and Charles always have the best in life that anyone could ask for. Love ya, Linda

A trip to Mr. Sharp's office is a new experience for sophomores Roger Brown and Larry Kadaras.

How do you resist looking out the window, Steve Wilson?

time out

Eek!!! Biology classes are fun for some, especially sophomores Linda Fletcher, David Jones, and Donald Krause.

Laura Blocker, Sue Bearden, Rose Marie Adams, Donnie Helm, Spencer Herd, and Earlene Pankey have learned that taking those dreadful notes is a part of high school life.

A sight for sore eyes is Judy Blackburn, Sharon Johnson, Pat Lacey, Betty Robinson, and Suzanne Knight, who don't look very tired after a strenuous (?) P. E. period.

Sweating one of Mr. Arseneau's tests are Steve Bender, David Tomlinson, and Jackie Austin.

Many Ann —

This year has been great, and you've helped make it that way. Good luck always to a great girl who truly deserves it.

Sincerely
Ed Sage

registration

Mr. Pegram, new principal of A.H.H.S., talks with sophomores Brenda Labovitz, Pat Lacy, and Garry Griffith about their first semester schedules.

New students become acquainted with Height's campus as they gather after lunch on the first real school day.

Filling out cards for attendance and health records are Mrs. Leach, school secretary, and Mrs. Fisher, nurse.

Mike Rooney, Cathleen Gunn, and Thayer Cantey press upon Miss Boone. It looks like she'll be needing that "big orange drink" before registration day is over.

The efforts of Mr. Dickenson and the custodial staff help us to start the school year with a clean, shining building.

Mrs. McCluney's smile might be part of the attraction to her English class for Juniors Mary Glasscock, Sandra Dickey, Norman Vick, and Nicky Hammond.

"What's the use?" says Phillip Ratcliffe in bewilderment at the confusion of Registration Day.

The advantages of taking mechanical drawing are pointed out to sophomores George Neely and Gary Griffin.

Registration book completed, Dian Dugon checks out with assistant Joan Newkirk as Bob Whatley tries to convince Mr. Sharp that his scheduled classes should be approved.

student council

Right: Sarah Brewster, chairman of the Student Handbook Committee, brings money collected for ads to Miss Kathryn Haden, who sponsors the Student Council. Every Heightster received a copy of the Handbook.

Below: at the Student Council Installation Service, former Heights' Principal Roy M. Stone presents the gavel to new Student Council President Graves Enck, as Principal Homer Pegram and other newly elected officers Joe Lee Burns, Linda Alexander, and Marcy Reiners look on.

This year 39 homerooms elected one councilman and one alternate each. Student Council Committees included Decorations, Elections, Flower and Card, Hospitality, Program, Promotion, Special Projects and Student Handbook. Howdy Week, with the election of Howdy King and Queen was one of the first projects this year. Next came the contest for Best Decorated Homeroom and Lockers at Homecoming.

"Jack, did Nancy burn her little hand?" Jack Jackson and Nancy Howell admire Fire Prevention Week posters.

"Let's be friends!" Friendly Heighsters brought their "Howdy Week" to a close with the election of Susie Handley and Mike Bickel, Queen and King.

special weeks

"Hey, are you sure you read that book?" Giving special book reports for Book Week are: Front Row: Linda Lawrence, Anita Holder, Rosan Jordan, Karen Bassham. Back Row: David Ashley, Roger Skaggs, Graves Enck, and Walter Wesley.

"The Lineup!" Hopeful candidates for student body officers are: Jay Murphy, Jan Borders, Marcy Reiners, Linda Alexander, Haig Bodour, Joe Shannon, Mary Ellen Kemmerer, Joe Lee Burns, Tommy Lipscomb, Ed Sager, and Graves Enck.

time out

1. Counselors spend many hours each day helping students. Here Miss Galen Porter helps Jay Gibson plan for his future education.
2. The solemn presentation by Ronald Craig thrills newly elected ROTC Sponsor Judy Vaughn. Larry Simmons and Steve Carter observe.
3. Why do secret discussions carried on by lettermen Jim Brock, Robert Banner, Bobby Pitts and Ray Read always seem to stop when a girl walks by?

4. Concentration is one of Mrs. Wells' chief attributes as a teacher. Who can say she doesn't need it?
5. Delivering absentee sheets isn't the only duty of office girls. Janice Higby and Eileen Montgomery get plenty of gossip in between times.
6. Senior girls always grab front row seats at assembly time. Michelle Loughry, Nancy Miller, Peggy Markum, Sarah Brewster, and Norma Richardson (with American History outline) got there first this time.

open house

1. Carol Bond and Jo Anna Click demonstrate their proficiency in cooking to parents.
2. Fred Vercruysse, Marilyn Hoff, and Nickie Soter demonstrate the chemically proper method to water flowers.
3. Watching the artistic ability of her daughter Jane is Mrs. Frances Patillo.

4. This was AHHS's largest open house. Parents and students hurry from one place to another.
5. Discussing problems of biology are Mrs. T. C. Carlisle and Dick, Mr. Arseneau and his son, Guy.
6. Mr. Wright explains one of the many machines in the shop to an interested parent.

1. Shouts of excitement rise through the building as students gather in the hall for the "before school pep rally" on Homecoming Day.
2. Lou Ann Ramey smiles her appreciation as Graves Enck, representing the student body, presents her the mum to wear as Homecoming Queen.
3. & 4. Careful attention is paid to morning announcements on Homecoming Day, for the winners of "Best Decorated" contests are then revealed. Best Decorated lockers, room 310; and Best Decorated homeroom, room 209 are pictured.
5. Woody McClung and Rosslyn Ferrier weren't the only ones who worked hard until the last minute getting out that special Homecoming paper.
6. Rosemary Morgan, with Jacket as a companion, gayly welcomes the exes.

7. Everyone here seems amazed at the ferocity of Jacket.
8. Miss Haden is proud of her exes, who send telegrams from every corner of the nation on Homecoming Day.
9. One of Heights' beloved traditions is the solemn entrance of the entire football team into the midst of a cheering assembly.
10. On Homecoming Day the cheerleaders add that final bit of spirit needed to let the team know that someone is behind them.
11. Judy Snyder, Betsy Dillard and Jane Patillo join Homecoming Queen Lou Ann Ramey in welcoming exes Joe Matthews and Mimi Meili.
12. "All that goes up must come down." Linda Colio seems to be stuck on a ladder and stuck with the job of getting that welcome sign down.

pep rallies

ranch day

Belle of the square dance—Mrs. Belle B. Evans and student, Jerry Reeves, take time out from grammar lessons for a gay square.

Ranch Royalty Keith Gentry and Peggy Markum were elected to rule over the top hands at A.H.H.S.

Carol Creswell reports to foreman for the day, Homer Pegram, on conditions in the South Forty.

Ranch Day is a day for relaxation from usual schedule. Stanley Shannon really knows how to make good use of his leisure time.

Even cowboys like to read. David Cook, Lester Kitchen, and Joe Shannon give library workers Alann Bedford and Janice Aikman some business.

christmas week

Bob Bradley, Betty Taggart, Jim Sanguinet, Jim Brock, and Suzanne Lowry, admire the Student Council's tree, decorated in the school colors, gold and blue.

The true spirit of Christmas was expressed when the faculty, student body, and parents join with the Chorus and Orchestra in singing traditional carols.

Alann Bedford presides as Mistress of Ceremonies. Violinists Melissa Morris, Judy Galloway, and Caron White pause while the Chorus sings.

The Orchestra and Chorus combined efforts to give an unusually effective presentation to the student body and guests.

The Jacket Footlight Players came back to life this spring with the success of "The Thirteenth Chair." The melodramatic mystery was presented in March. Due to the illness of the previous sponsor, Mrs. Mary Franklin, the fall season, following the annual Sunrise Breakfast was cancelled. After the arrival of the new sponsor, Mrs. Edwina Sanders, players began buzzing again.

2. Sponsor of Jacket Footlight Players, Mrs. Edwina Sanders directs all activities of the club.
3. Rehearsals of the "Thirteenth Chair" find "Helen" Carol Creswell giving a dreamy-eyed look to her fiance "Will" Johnny Matheny.
4. Work behind the scenes makes a play a success. Leading production of the "Thirteenth Chair" were Marjorie Titt, assistant stage manager; Linda Wilkinson, assistant production manager; Barbara Simmons, publicity and house manager; Stanley Crow, production manager; Marcy Reiners, assistant director; and Woodie McClung, stage manager.
5. Supervising isn't the only job of a production manager. Here he ably assists Carlene Weatherford, stage and building crew head, to scrub flats.
6. "Who done it?" Everyone loves a murder. Here "Wales" Robert Osburn is killed in rehearsals of "Thirteenth Chair."
7. The Footlight Players annual Sunrise Breakfast gives Emma Alvis, Bobby Nanney and Louise Miller opportunity to display their pancake mixing ability.
8. "Rosalie" Charlotte Johnson really puts over her point to "Standish" Joe Shannon and "Dunn" Eugene Blum.

"Well, what do you know? That miracle diet really works," exclaims Jo Ellen Darnaby, as she stands on the scales in the nurse's office.

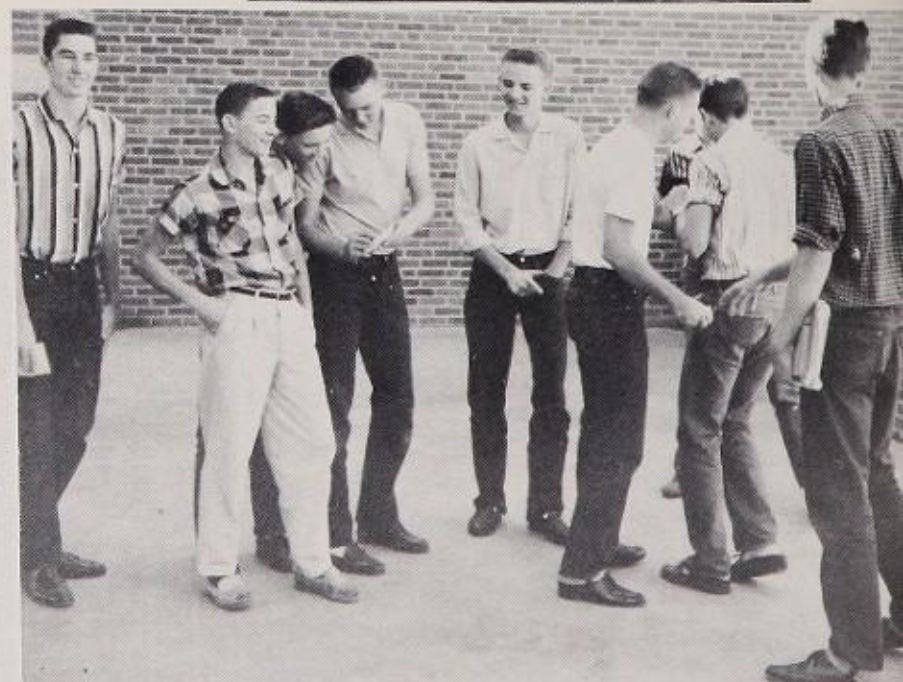

Believe it or not, the boy in the middle was given three worms by a mother robbin before their teacher got them out of that window.

Coach Curry takes time out for a breather on the practice field.

Informal shot of the syndicate—Naylor, Abbey, Hogan, Stovall, and Ruggieri.

This is nothing but a bull session. What else can you call it?

Harry Moreland and Ray Read take time out for post game refreshments in the gym, while Terry Woody smiles her approval.

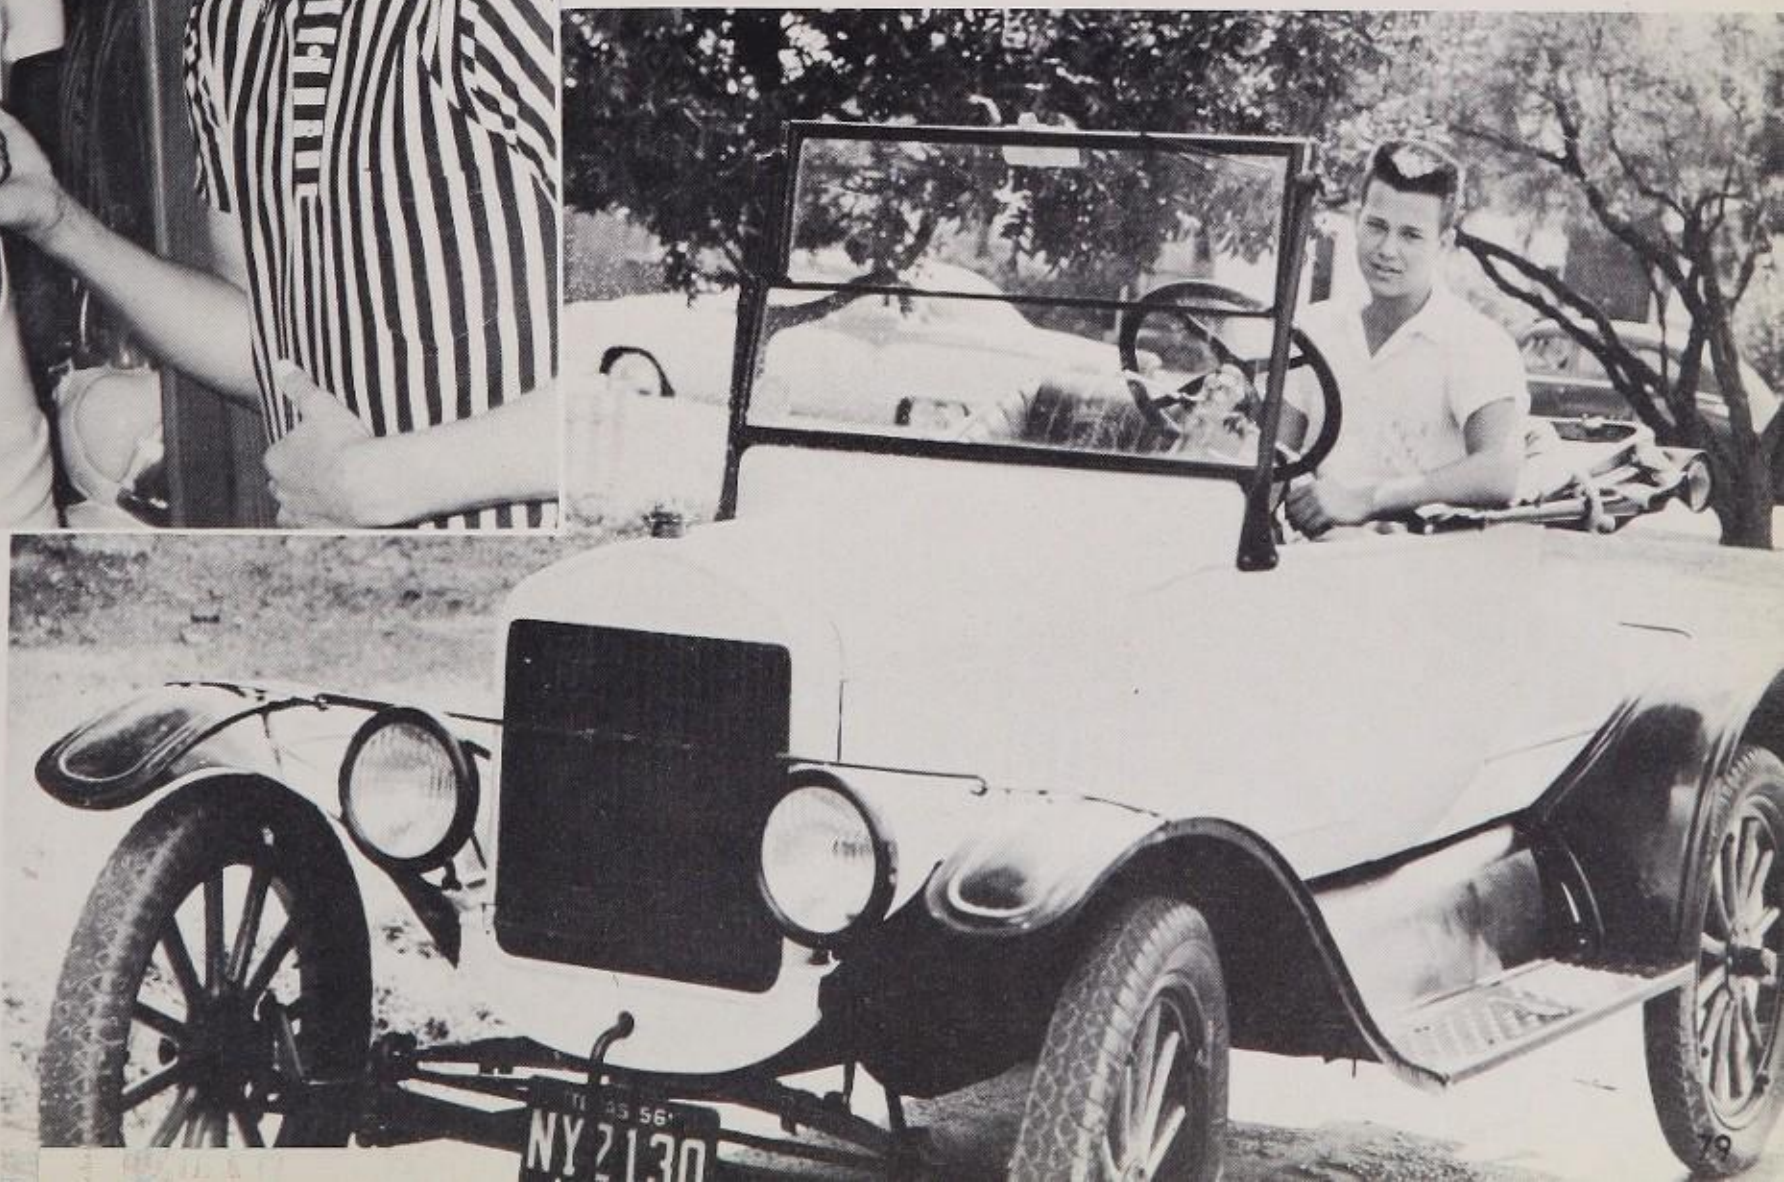

Patty Huffman isn't trying to keep the water from running out the hole in her head. She just posed for our cameraman.

"It's enough to make your liver quiver," says Doug Gascamp as he steals a look at the biology dummy.

You can't hardly get them kind no more, but Kirk Craig has one. (He got it out of a super colossal size box of Cracker Jax.)

Ah—Only twenty minutes till deadline and JJ co-editors Pattie Clare and Jayne Kinney stop to rest.

All set to circulate! Allen Eyler assists Pat Mitchell, circulation manager, in getting set to do his job.

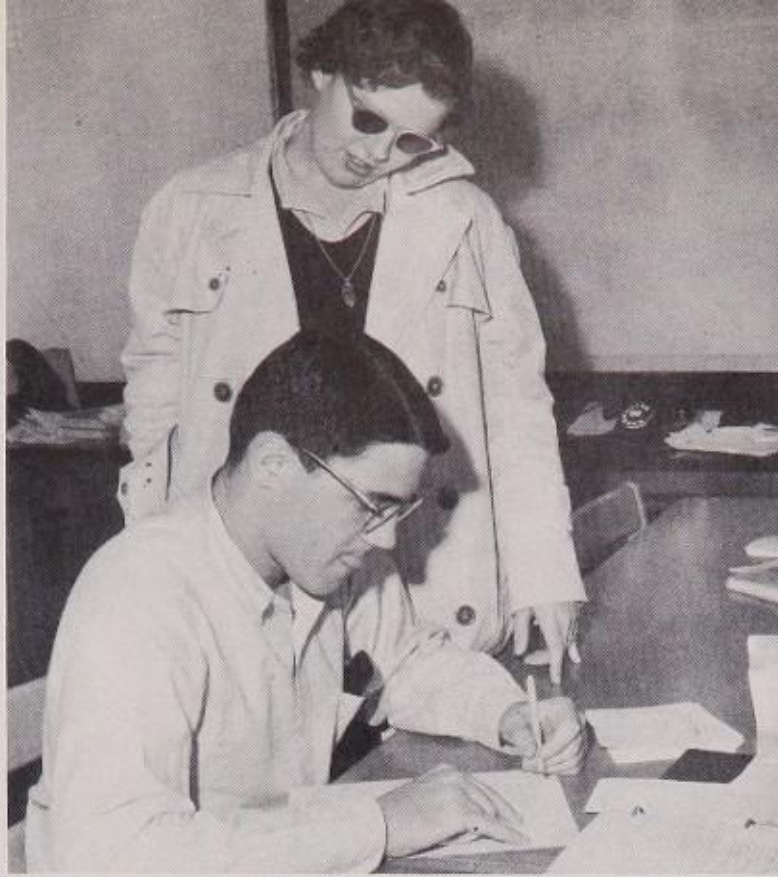

What's so attractive that it can take three girls' eyes off of the football team? The interested three are Roslynn Ferrier, Dian Dugon, and Cynthia Henderson.

Always giggling! Frank Sutton, Terry Woody, and Ray Read laugh together over an Amarillo humor column.

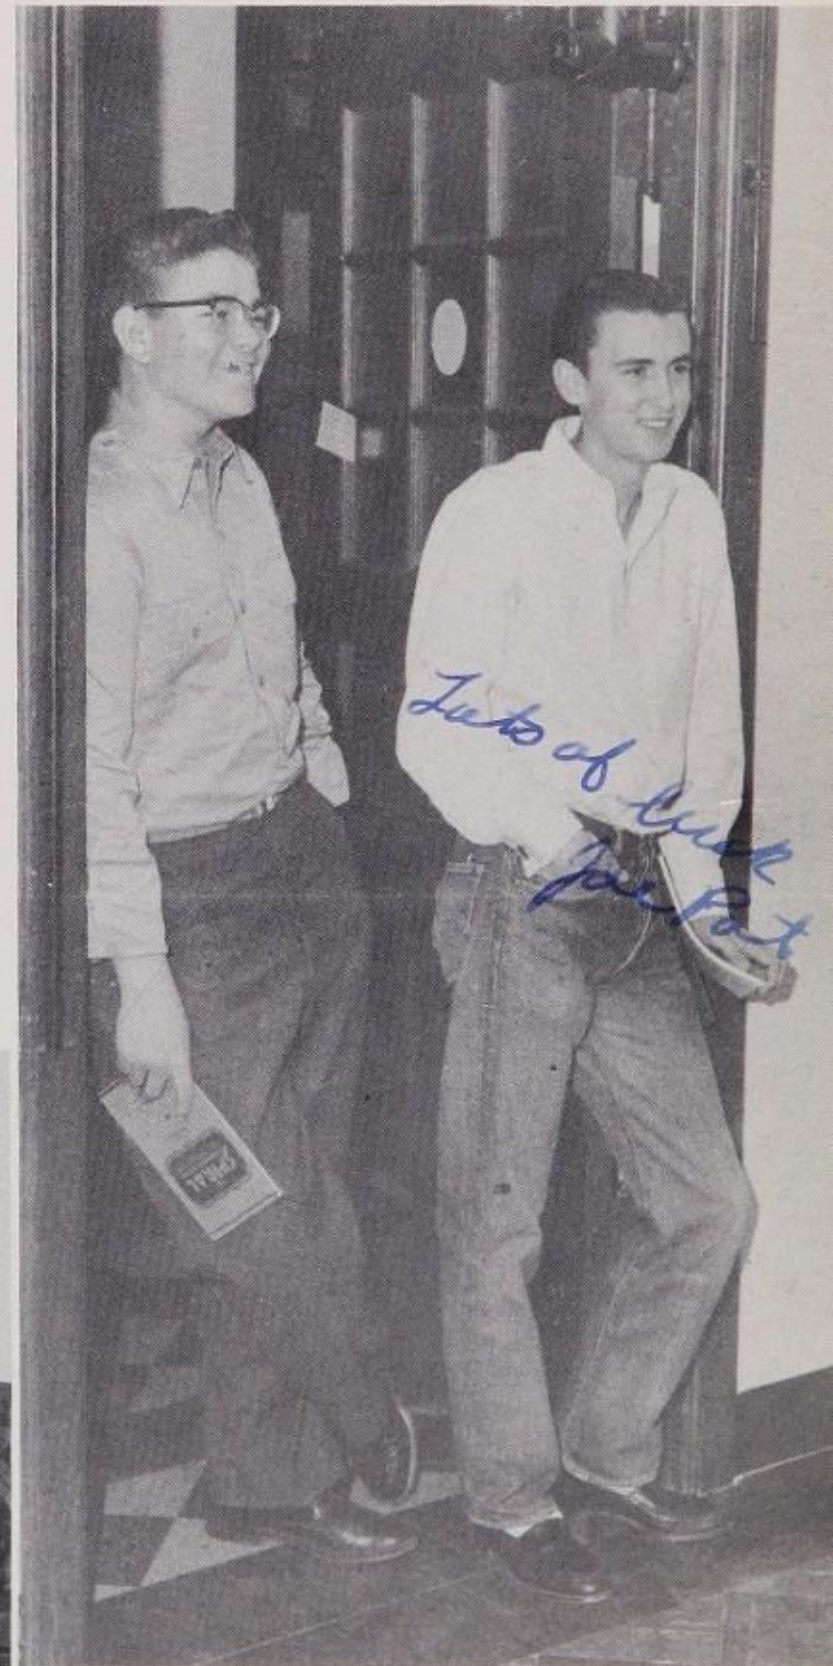

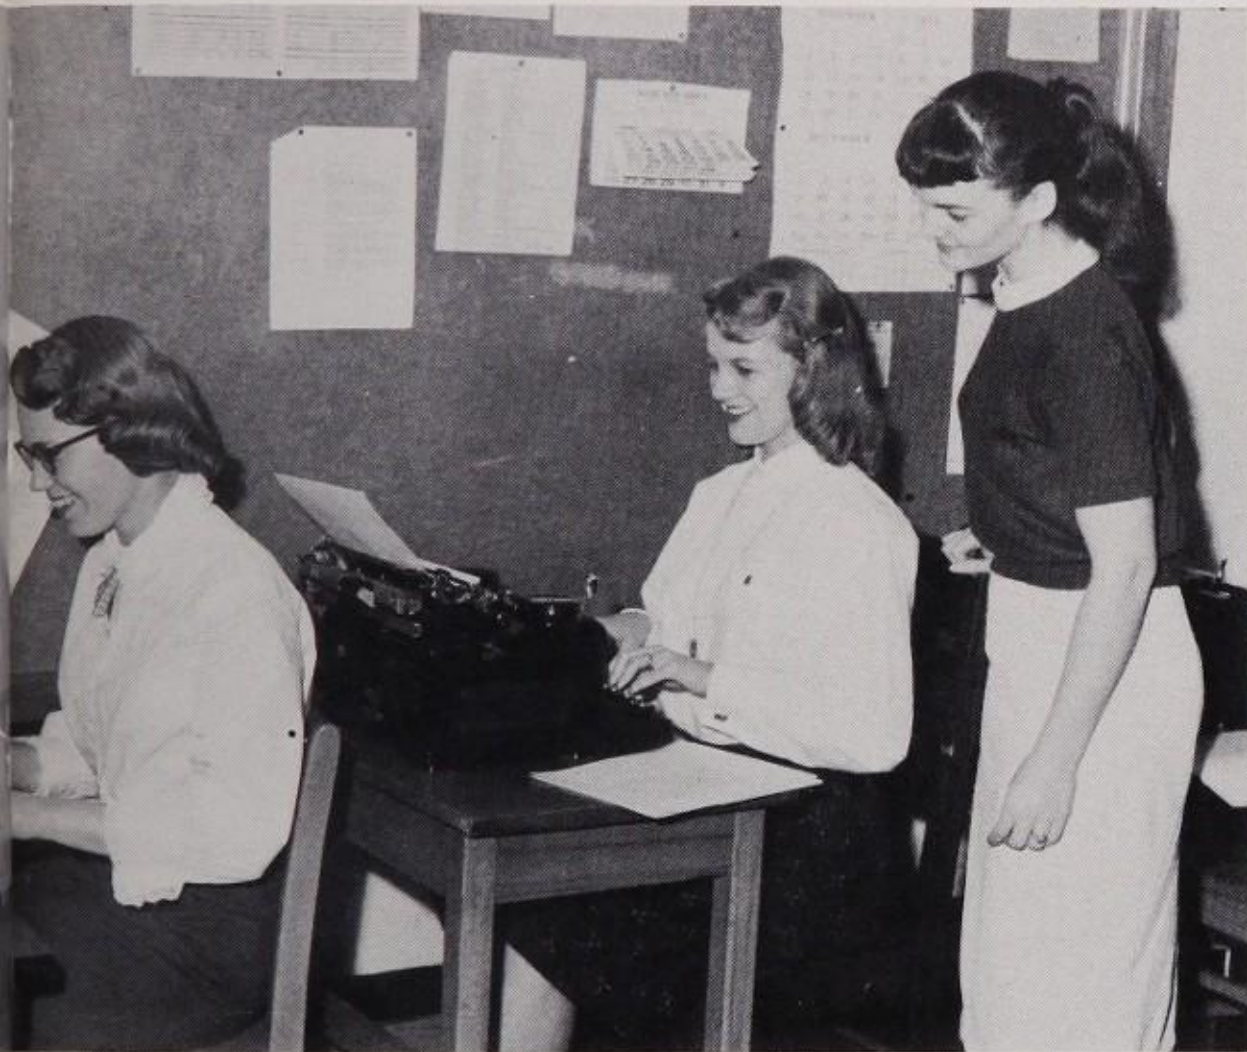

Let's go boy! I've got places to go and things to do. Encouraging Jack Greenman to hurry is Jane Ely, who is all set to meet the elements.

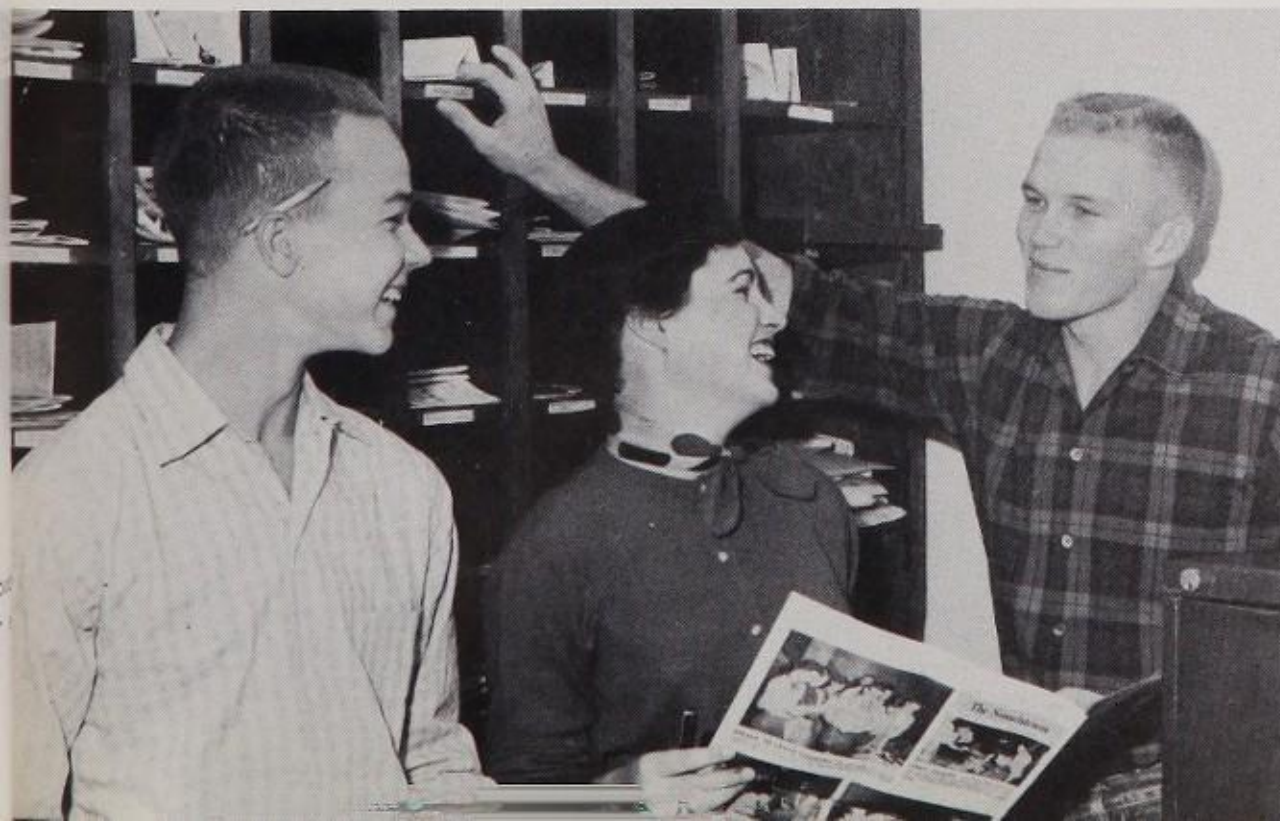

G'way! You bother me! Bernice Wofford tells Jeannine Cason to heckel Carlene Weatherford awhile.

Bet Woodie McClung wouldn't look so mean if he were actually with the other person.

News! We need news! Journalists Don Maples and Joe Pat Massie pause in their search for column material.

4. Judy Galloway and Larry Thompson, as circulation managers, keep close check on annual sales, which soared to 1050 before the campaign ended.

5. Snap shots are all important in a good annual. Ask snap shot editors Sylvia Dailey and Allen Eyler.
6. Sophomore class editors Eden Van Zandt and Jan Borders cut pictures as Barbara Simmons, faculty editor, checks with Mr. Maulsby about faculty pictures.
7. Junior class editors Dian Dugon and Judy Worley, and senior class editors Bobby Beyer and Jackie Krause spend extra hours filing cards and typing lists for their sections.

Heights has a "Texas size" A-Y.

The post at AHHS boasts one of the largest in the nation, with 600 members.

The Allied Youth began an ambitious membership drive which netted them 312 members the first two days of school. By the time the main membership drive came to a close there were enough members to send six delegates to the National Convention at Buck Hill Falls in November. These students came back bubbling with new ideas for the post, whose purpose is to educate youth regarding alcohol and its effects.

The highlight of the year was the annual "male beauty contest" and Christmas party. The boys were a riot. The A. Y. picnic took the spotlight in the spring.

Girls Intramural Council, consisting of thirteen members, planned this year's girls intramural activities.

The annual "game of the year" between GIC and women faculty members proved to be a hysterical volleyball contest. No one seemed to remember the game's score, but everyone remembers the outstanding costumes.

To become a member of GIC, a girl must earn a certain number of points in PE classes.

library club

Sixteen girls worked with librarian, Mrs. Luella Higley, as library assistants this year. The Arlington Heights Library Club was their official organization.

A schedule was set up early in the year giving every member one period each day to work in the library and one morning every week before school.

"A" Club, Arlington Height's Lettermen's Association, under the sponsorship of Coach N. J. Hogan, was reorganized this year.

Membership in the "A" club is achieved by earning a letter on any of the athletic teams of Arlington Heights.

The plans of the club included the annual faculty-lettermen basketball game, a hay-ride, and a drive to raise money for spring sports.

Seated: Esther Wilson, secretary; Miss Eula F. Hunter, sponsor; Sylvia Gray, president.

Thirty-four members of Future Teachers of America met twice monthly to learn about the teaching profession through discussion and lectures.

Social activities included a get acquainted party in October and a Christmas dinner.

The club sent delegates to both District and State Conventions this year.

chess club

The Chess Club began the year with an organizational meeting September 12. Meetings were held at the homes of different members. The boys participated in an all-city tournament in the spring.

Two members of the Heights' Chess Club took part in the annual National Junior Chess Championship Tournament in Philadelphia last summer.

jr. red cross

The first meeting for the Junior Red Cross was in October. Money from the fund raising campaign held in November went toward a school chest filled with school items, toys, gymnastic equipment, etc. which was sent overseas.

The chapter takes variety programs to the U. S. Public Health Hospital and to Carswell.

Judy Truelson is president of the Tarrant County Chapter. She was sent to Europe on a Red Cross sponsored trip last summer.

Judy Galloway is vice-president of the Tarrant County Chapter. She was also chosen on the Mid-Western Area Advisory Council.

science club

The Science Club, one of the most active organizations in Heights, offers much to the scientific minded student. This year's activities hinged around the Science Fair in which most members participated. Along with work on projects are films, talks by leading scientists of the community and field trips.

The club also gives service pins to outstanding members.

tri-hi-y

The highlight of the year for the Arlington Heights Tri-Hi-Y came in December when seven of its members went to Austin to participate in the annual YMCA Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Model Legislature.

Other activities were a joint dance with the Carter Tri-Hi-Y, a Christmas dinner, and a coke party.

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y is to develop a well-informed and well-adjusted group of future citizens.

education

Distributive Education is a training program for students who wish to work and earn a high school diploma at the same time.

The thirty-one members take courses offered in wholesale, retail, and service selling while earning special credit by three hours actual work in one of Fort Worth's nineteen approved business firms.

out of town trip

On October 6, a cloudy evening, twelve buses rolled up to Heights to transport over 400 Jacket fans to the Highland Park Game in Dallas. As soon as the buses stopped the band began loading and excited Jackets rushed around to find their bus and sponsor. Then came the long moments of waiting as exterior decorators added the finishing touches. Win or lose, the out of town trip is always a highlight of football season.

band

Sparking Heightsters on to lustier singing and louder yelling in every pep rally this year was the 1956-57 Yellow Jacket Band. The sixty-eight band members practiced a week before school started so that they would be ready for the first football game. They performed at eight of the season's ten games, including one out-of-town trip to Highland Park in Dallas.

At the Grand Prairie Marching Festival in November the band won a Second Division Rating. Majorettes Wynell Emery, Judy Ezell and Laurel Harper received a First Division Award for their twirling ensemble.

Activities for the spring semester included the Stock Show Parade and the Stock Show Concert in January. Heights' Band also participated in the T.C.U. Music Festival, the Jacksboro Band Concert, and the All City Solo and Ensemble Contest at Poly. A Band Concert was held May 2. Junior high school bands joined with our band in the Arlington Heights Music Night. Later in the spring trips were made to several of Ft. Worth's junior high schools for special band programs.

Row Three: Fran May, Carolyn Norman, Barbara Hart, Michelle Keller, Bill Van Gorder, John Haase, Mike Williams, W. E. ## FOOTBALL IN 1956

Ranked fourth in the state, the Jackets had a reasonably successful season which opened with the rousing defeat of Sherman—final score 27 to nothing.

Disappointment was soon to follow, however, as the Midland eleven slipped past us with a hard fought victory of 19 to 13.

San Angelo, playing the avenger's role, succeeded in upsetting the Jackets' hopes of sacking up another victory against the strong West Texas team in the third game of the season.

Playing another one half ball game, the Jackets yielded the fourth of their series to Highland Park by a score of 28 to 20.

Following the Highland Park loss, the Heightsmen battered the Waco Tigers for a sportswriter upset of 41 to 20.

The Jackets then stormed into district play with the narrow victory over Poly of 14 to 13.

Led by the sports fans' delight, Hurricane Harry Moreland, the Heights eleven stormed by Northside with the high score of the year, 33 to nothing.

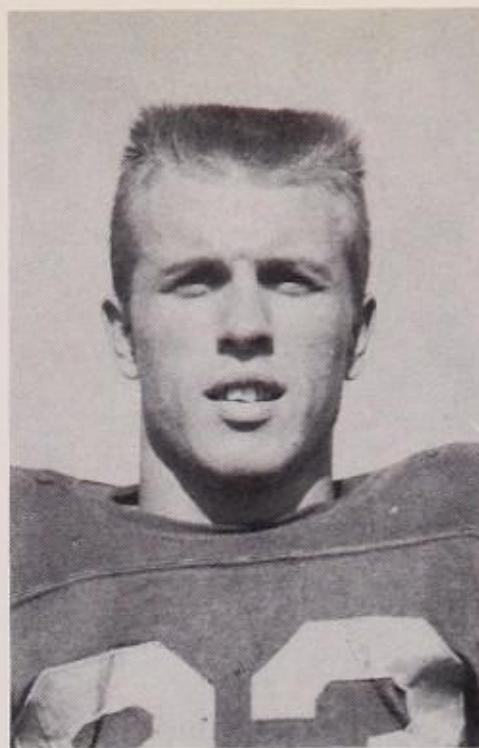

The following week, the Jackets won again, this time against Tech with the booming score of 33 to 8.

Spirit reigned at the heartbreaker of the year, Homecoming against Paschal, in which our boys bowed to the Panthers 47 to 33.

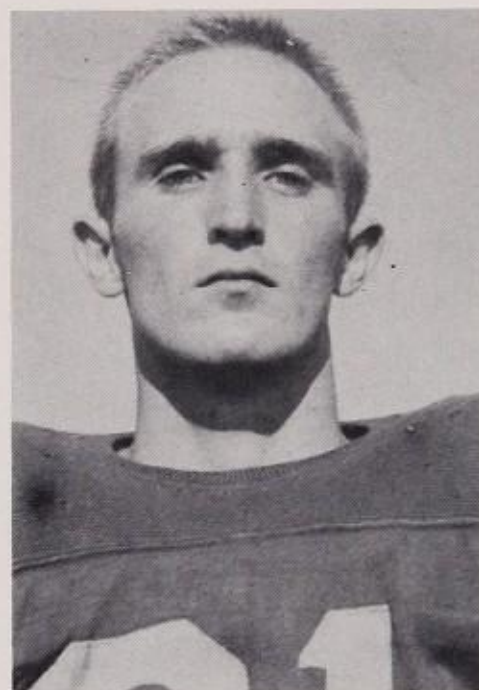

Concluding the season, the Heightsters suffered a bitter defeat in the hands of the Carter Riverside Eagles. We lost 35 to 13.

This game marked Coach N. J. (Pug) Hogan's last, as he announced he would resign his coaching position at the end of the season.

With the close of the season came the awards and recognition. Our heartiest congratulations go to Harry Moreland, who made All State, and to Jim Brock, who made District; as well as to Kay Brockermeyer and Pat Mitchell, who were listed on the Press All District Team.

Harry Moreland, Jackets' "hurricane" back, surpassed all records of previous Heights' backs as he was selected for All District and All State teams two consecutive years, and was voted the outstanding back of District 4AAA of 1956.

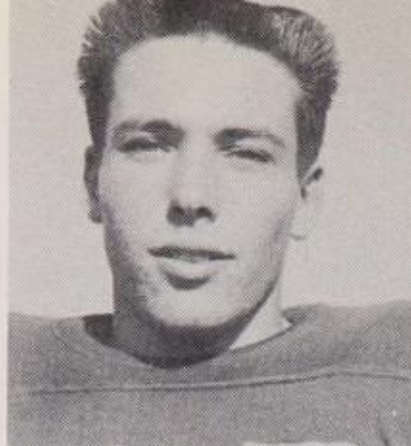

Jim Brock, stalwart of the Jacket line, won All District recognition.

Second Round

Arlington Heights 51	Tech 45
Arlington Heights 56	Carter 57
Arlington Heights 54	North Side 36
Arlington Heights 54	Poly 58
Arlington Heights 63	Paschal 47

Starting the year off with a bang, the Heights five bounded by Tech by the score of 51 to 45.

Defeat was soon to come, however, as the Carter quintet outplayed us with the overtime score of 57 to 56.

Next came the North Side game. This hard-fought hassle was finally given over to the opponents by the score of 47 to 60.

The Poly game followed, and the resulting score of 51 to 55 in favor of the Parrots left us with one to go in the first round.

The last game, Paschal, was a 51 to 59 defeat, which ended up the first round and left us with one won and four lost.

The second round started off with the defeat of Tech 51 to 45, the very same score as in the first round.

Next came Carter, who defeated us 57 to 56, another score identical to that in the first round.

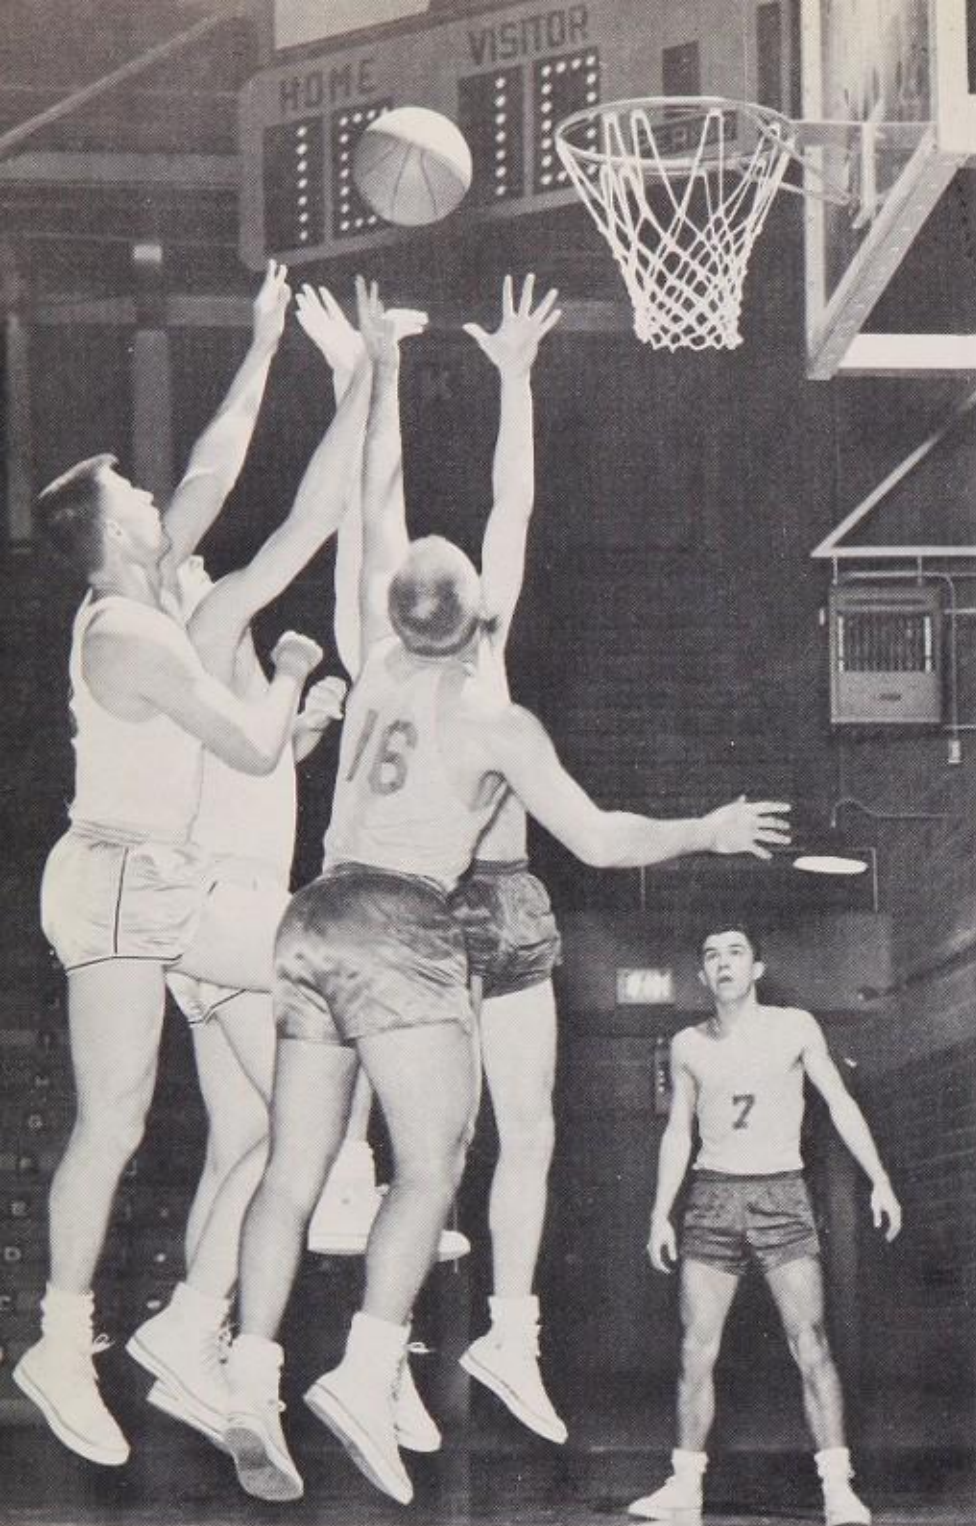

In the third game of the second round, North Side dribbled by us for a score of 54 to 36 in their favor.

Winning by a 4 point margin, Poly defeated us the next week by the score of 58 to 54.

The last game of the season, the Paschal game, was hard fought and won by our boys 63 to 47. This gave us 4 won and 1 lost.

The total for the season was 5 won and 5 lost which put us in fourth place.

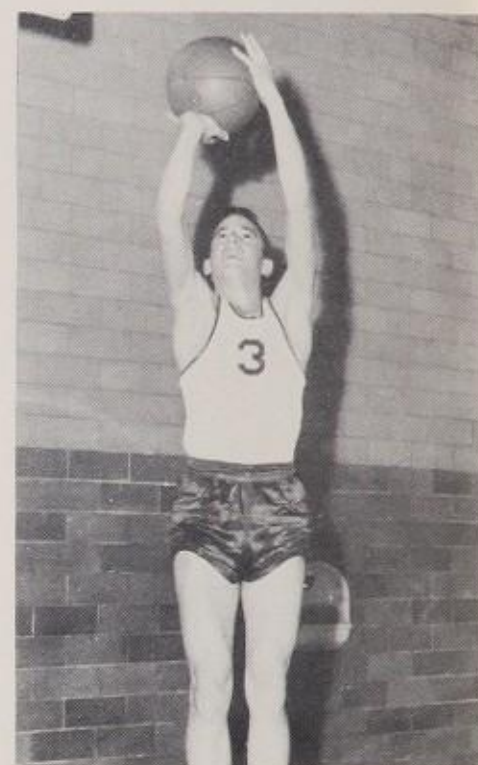

Mike Loudermilk and James Balch wait expectantly as Jim Brock goes into the air in an attempt to gain possession of the ball during the North Side Game, which we won 54 to 36.

cheerleaders

Mike Bickel

Under the able direction of Miss Marion Kindel, the cheerleaders did a great job of stimulating school spirit. This was shown at the Heights-Paschal Game, when our spirit reached its peak.

Junior and senior yell leaders were elected to their posts last spring. At the beginning of the fall term the sophomores took their place in the cheerleading squad.

The friendliness of this enthusiastic eight toward all whom they met proved that they were well chosen to represent the student body.

most studious

Linda Alexander, straight "A" student, was chosen as Heights' Most Studious Girl. A senior this year, Linda displayed a genuine interest not only in making excellent grades, but in taking an active part in other activities. Seeking out responsibility, she served as alternate councilman in her sophomore year, homeroom president in her junior year, and as a senior she was elected secretary of the Student Council and was chosen as a crew head for the Jacket Foot-light Players' production. Because of her outstanding scholarship and service, Linda was a "J" Club member for two years.

Graves Enck, president of the Student Council, was elected Most Studious Boy this year. He held an office in his homeroom each year at Heights, serving as councilman, homeroom secretary, and homeroom president in his sophomore, junior, and senior years respectively.

An active member of Allied Youth, Graves was an A. Y. Beauty last year and participated in other A. Y. programs.

Lettering in football in his senior year made him a member of "A" Club, the Arlington Heights' Lettermen's Association. Because he maintained a high grade average and participated in many activities, Graves earned "J" Club membership for three years.

most athletic

Adding boundless energy and enthusiasm to her natural skills in all sports, Nancy Elliott, senior, played as a member of every girls' varsity team and acted as an official at girls' volleyball and basketball games.

Because of her athletic abilities Nancy received many honors at Heights. She lettered in P. E. three times and served as secretary, then as president of Girls' Intramural Council. These things made Nancy the choice for Most Athletic Girl on the Hill in 1957.

The Most Athletic Boy at A.H.H.S. this year was Harry Moreland. Harry lettered three times in football and in track, setting records in both sports.

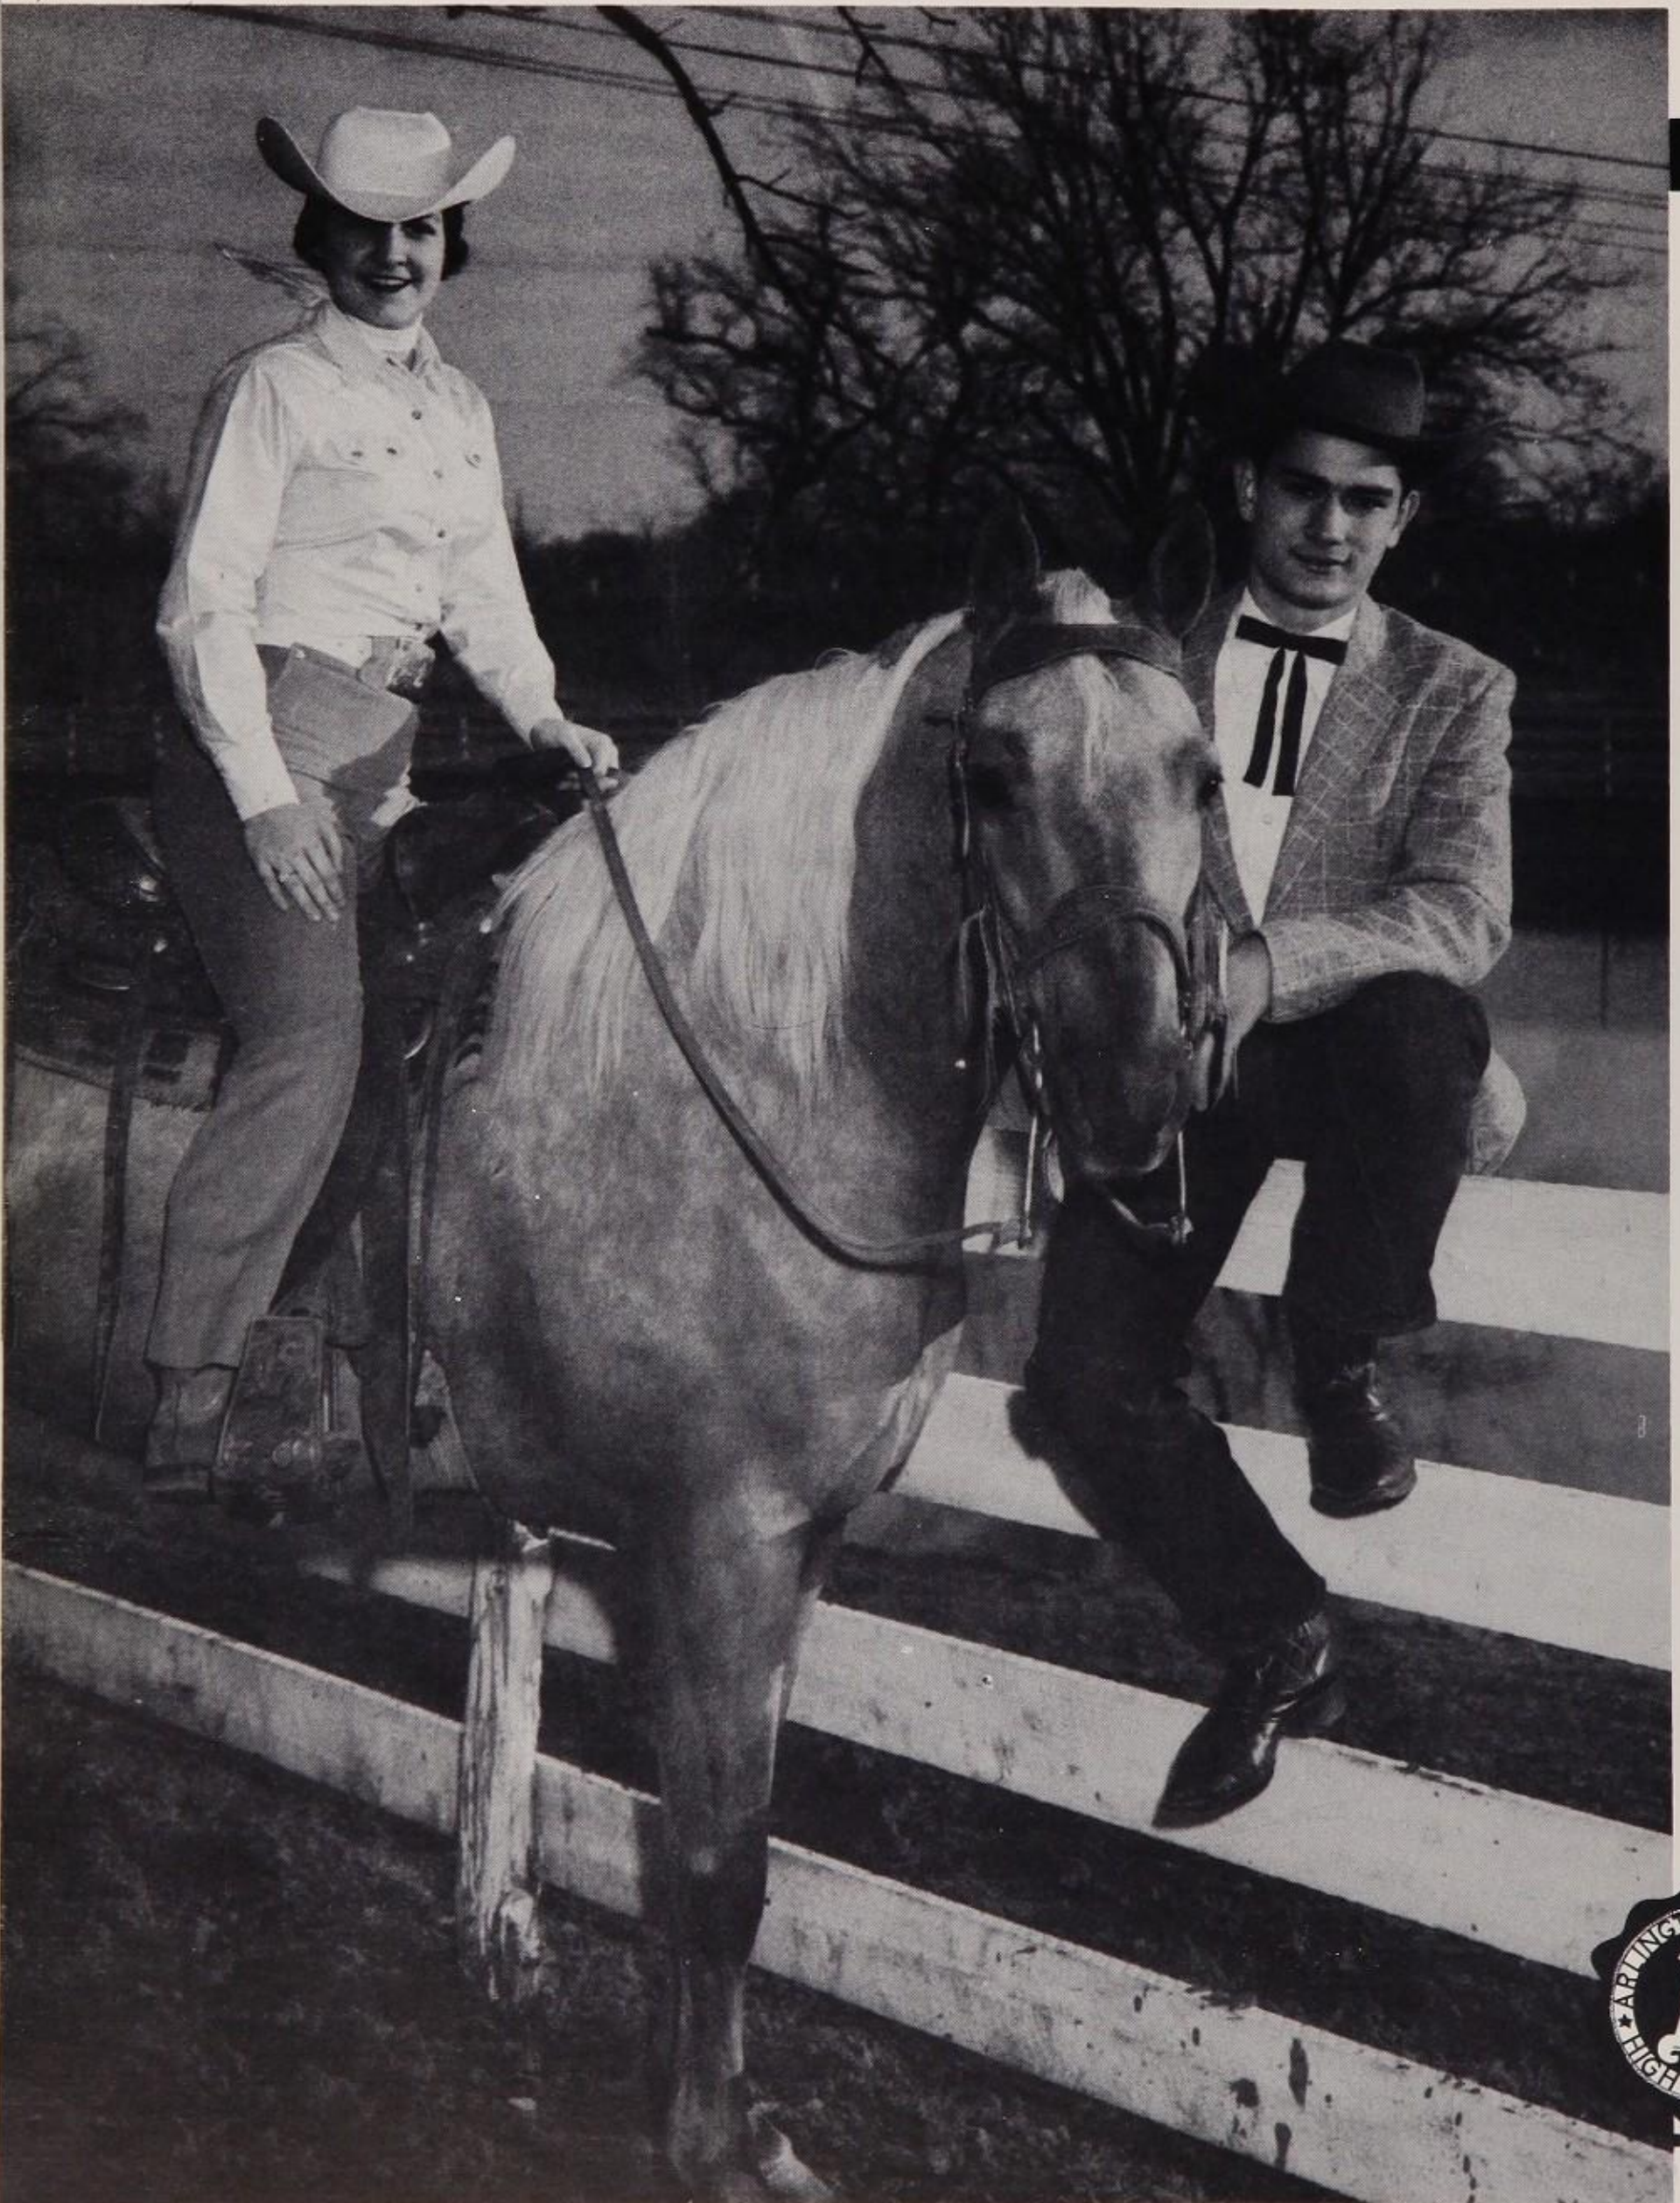

In his junior year he made All-District and All-State football teams, and earned two outstanding player awards: the C. C. Westfall Trophy and the Tom McAn Bronze Shoe.

As a senior, Harry was vice-president of "A" Club. He was again a member of both All-District and All-State Teams, and was chosen by Fink Sports Magazine for its All-American Team.

Harry's track record was also outstanding. He placed first in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, and ran as a part of Heights' winning 440 yard relay team at the State Meet last year.

Officers of the "J" Club, which honors students for their leadership, scholarship, and service, are Carol Creswell, treasurer; Charlotte Lynn Johnson, secretary; Monette Wallace, vice-president; Lester Kitchen, president. Mr. Homer J. Pegram and Miss Kathryn Haden sponsor the club.

in memoriam

In memory of our friend and fellow worker, Mrs. Mary Sweet Franklin, who died February 17, 1957, we pay loving tribute. As an instructor of speech and English, Mrs. Franklin taught in Arlington Heights High School in 1945 and during the first six weeks of the fall semester of 1956. She was held in high esteem by both students and teachers.

Her life was a fusion of kindness and beauty. To her students and to her art she gave generously and untiringly of her time and talent. At all times she was kind, patient, and understanding. To her associates she radiated the beauty and wholesomeness of life itself.

Of Mrs. Franklin's life

we can truly say

with Keats:

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever;

Its loveliness increases; it can never Pass into nothingness."

MARY ANN,
I hope you have gotten
as much out of old H.H.S.
as I have. Be good.

Good luck
in your marriage and may you always be as sweet and pretty as you are today. Love ya, Joanne

Mary Ann,
you are really a cute and sweet girl. The best of everything to you.

Love,

Joanne

Dear Mary Ann,
I really like your signature my mom said. I really have enjoyed knowing you
these past three years. My you always have the best.

Joanne
Mary Ann

Mary Ann
I have enjoyed having you and working with the happenings in the world.

Mary Ann,

I've really enjoyed knowing you. Hope you will always have the best of everything.

Shirley Johnson

Mary Ann,

Although I don't know you very well
I do want to wish you good luck and happiness in the future. You are a real cute girl.

Yours
Gwendolyn Lamb

Mary Ann,

I am so glad we were in the same class together so I had the opportunity of knowing such a wonderful gal as you. You are a beautiful person in every respect. Best of luck to someone I admire a lot.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Gray

Mary Ann,
I have enjoyed being in tennis with you. I'm sorry you are graduating because this is the last I'll see of you.

Love
Shirley Seaguer

Dear Mary Ann

I have enjoyed having you in my class and I like you a lot. You keep on making the grades. Love
Dorey Hummel

Dear Mary Ann,

To begin with, what would I have done without you? You have always been there to listen to my troubles, to introduce me to people, to offer your shoulder for me to cry on, and just everything else imaginable. I've certainly enjoyed living next door to you, and I think we've had some pretty wonderful times. Now that you're about to "take the plunge", it won't be quite the same, but nevertheless, you'll still be my aide in everything. I hope that we'll never lose touch with one another, no matter how far apart we are. I want to wish you and Charles the best of luck and I know you'll be happy, because you're the kind of person that makes others happy, and from what I've heard from you, so is Charles.

Well, I'd better quit now while I still have some of my senses left, but always be as sweet and good as you are now, & you'll never have to worry.

Love,
Loretta

lots of luck to the girl to whom I gave my dog away
back in California.

I really thank a lot of you,

Mumma

Mary Ann,
It surely has been nice knowing you during our high school days,
I wish you all the happiness in the world.

Tom Whiteside

Mary Ann,
 Really this year has been wonderful & I've really had a ball with you in home room. You're a darling gal. Love ya loads,
 Linda Miller

Dear Mary Ann,
 I have never told you but I have admired your eyes for a long time and I would give any thing to have them, lots
 of luck
 Mary
